

Secrets of The Confident Expert

*How to Transform Your Future Success and Become ~~an Average & fearful~~
a Totally Confident & Highly Respected Speaker*

THE MOST IMPORTANT Document You'll Ever Read

If you are reading this document, then you have expressed interest in achieving the success that comes with becoming a better and more confident speaker.

And you've been reading the THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Daily Mentoring from ME (Bishal Sarkar) because you know what I do for others can help you but you're not sure if you qualify for my mentorship yet, because you know I don't allow everyone to come to my courses.

The path I walk on and this path that thousands of my successful clients are walking on is a path of CONFIDENCE.

If you're looking for more money by getting the next promotion...you will find it down this path.

If you're looking for more respect from your colleagues, peers, friends and even family...you will find it down this path.

If you are looking for happiness because of more opportunities for advancement in your career...you will find those down this path as well.

Without exaggerating, almost anything and everything you want is possible for you when you go through life as a CONFIDENT Expert, instead of living as an average fearful domain expert.

During the next few minutes, I'm going to outline what this journey could be like for you. Some of what I reveal might excite you, some of it might make you angry. No matter what you feel as you read these pages, go through to the end and then ask yourself a simple question: “Do I want MORE for my future than what I currently have?” How you answer that question will tell you everything you need to know about what to do next.

First, I want to make sure it’s even worth your time to read this document. So if any of the following items below are true for you, please stop reading this and move on to something else. What I have is not for you.

Who This is NOT For

What I provide in the world of the Confident Expert is not for you if:

- X If you’re just starting out in your career.
- X If you’re NOT a subject matter expert in your field.
- X If you’re not willing to be honest with yourself (Transformation can NEVER happen without honesty).
- X If you’re not willing to become a CONFIDENT SPEAKER in a practical & permanent way.
- X If you don’t have big goals and don’t care for your family.
- X You’re more committed to your small excuses rather than living a happy life.

Who This Is For

You are in the right place and may even be a good candidate for my program(s) if:

- ✓ If you’re a subject matter expert in your field and you want to reach higher level.
- ✓ If you’re a knowledgeable person who gives presentations as a part of his profession.
- ✓ If you have the ability, willingness to IMPLEMENT “Advanced Confidence Formula” to see RADICAL transformation in the way you present your ideas.
- ✓ If you’re an ambitious man, and you want to lead better more effectively after being a CONFIDENT speaker.
- ✓ If you care for your family, and you recognize that you being a CONFIDENT speaker does ADD a lot of value to not only your professional life but also your personal life.

In Other Words, I’m Looking For REAL Men

There are “talkers,” and then there are “doers.”

Let me make it clear that I don’t mentor grown-up cry-babies, complainers, victims, whiners who “talk” about becoming CONFIDENT & achieving FREEDOM in life, but can’t seem to actually make a move and TAKE MASSIVE ACTION.

Giving up whining or going through life seeing yourself as a victim is NOT something anyone can teach you how to change. It is simply a decision you must make for yourself.

So I’m assuming that by reading further, you are ready for the truth about what it takes to succeed as a Confident Expert & Confident Speaker.

Let's Talk About "That Guy"

You know that guy?

"That guy" is the man in your office who makes more money than you, holds a higher position than you, gets more recognition than you EVEN THOUGH he's NOT that knowledgeable?

He's getting more credit, more success, and he seems happier, when he's DEFINITELY not as good as you in terms of knowledge & experience?

Why would someone not as well equipped as you get into a better position than you are in? What's the difference between you and him?

I've thought about this. And while there might be several differences, the biggest one is how this man acts in the world. Usually, people like this are far more confident than normal people.

It's really such a simple thing that can make an enormous difference in every area of life.

His family life is better, he goes home earlier, his wife brags about him more to her friends, and his children are going to the best schools. He sleeps peacefully. He has less worry and more prestige.

My question to you is:

How much longer do you want to wait before you become THAT GUY?

If you want to get ahead, it's time you Skyrocket Your Confidence by MASTERING your presentation skills in front of groups, and by accessing YOUR total confidence.

You don't have to be a great presenter now, all you need is a strong desire to make a change.

Is it possible? Can you go from being a presenter filled with stage fear to becoming a truly CONFIDENT EXPERT?

To answer that, let me tell you a quick story...

Bishal Sarkar was NOT Born As a Confident Speaker

I was NOT always a great speaker, nor was I a successful man with a happy family.

In fact, early in life, I had ZERO confidence.

What most people know about me is that I am the highest-paid public speaker in India, I am the creator of "THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Live Experience," I am featured in Times of India, Reebok (along with Kangana Ranaut), Conscious Millionaire, and Project Real Heroes (along with Sania Mirza).

But what most people don't know about me is that I am an introvert person, who grew up with a lot of confidence issues. I was born & brought up in a small town called Siliguri, I studied in a Bengali-medium Govt. school where my parents paid 289 Rupees....per year.

So, growing up, I didn't have confidence, neither did I have great connections. Buying a new pen was a big deal for us.

Many years later, when I started working for Firstsource, and then Business Standard, I gave a lot of bad presentations, and that led to a lot of frustration.

I Was Losing In My Career, I Was Losing In My LIFE

"Bishal, practice more."

“Bishal, practice in front of mirrors.”

“Bishal, give more and more speeches.”

I did everything, but NOTHING FREAKING WORKED!

Until I met a man named Mark, who took me under his wing, mentored me and showed me the STEP-BY-STEP formula to become a CONFIDENT SPEAKER.

I learned.

I applied.

And magic happened.

I immediately got a lot of recognition in my career.

In less than 90 days, I started making more money.

More & more people were coming to me for help, and advice.

“Bishal, can you show ME how I can give confident presentations?”

I started showing them my FORMULA, and they started getting promotions, attention, and career acceleration.

One of my friends got 3 promotions in a matter of 17 months, and now he’s based in UK, living his dreams with his happy family.

And then I decided to show selected individuals the SAME FORMULA. But I didn’t just show them the formula, I also helped them IMPLEMENT it in a very practical way.

Because it’s kind of like swimming.

It HAS to be practical.

And that’s why I created THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Live Experience. It is for people who are ready for massive transformation and want a step-by-step practical approach to make it happen.

Once you master and implement the FORMULA, your CONFIDENCE will go through the roof. And at some point in the future, they won't be your boss. YOU will be their boss.

Unfortunately most people end up being average.

What do I mean by "average?"

How to Spend The Rest of Your Life as a Knowledgeable Person YET an Average Speaker

- 1. Average people see the world the way the masses have been trained to see the world. The masses don't understand the concept of "value," they only know to ask about PRICE. The masses don't understand how to focus on creating the result you want in life. The masses never get progress because they are too caught up believing the stories they've been told by people who are no more successful than they are. "Nothing fast could be good...if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is...I should never make serious investments in myself, I should always play small and play it safe. I should suffer, because my father do so." If this sounds like you, then understand that you have been brainwashed.
- 2. Average people feel they just need to practice. "I just need to practice, practice and practice." Truth be told: If direction is wrong, speed doesn't matter. So if you're practicing a lot but with the wrong techniques, you're getting closer to your career deadline. Are you practicing your way to spending the rest of your life scared to death of speaking and presenting? You might be.
- 3. Average people learn from other average people. Be careful who you choose to listen to. Listening to people who are no more successful than you about how to become more successful might make you feel good, but it will never challenge you to think, act and live in a bigger way. You will go around in circles forever wondering why you're working so hard and getting absolutely nowhere.
- 4. Average people will "do it tomorrow!" Procrastination is the worst and most expensive habit of "average" people. If you're waiting and waiting to take action, and spending your time dreaming about becoming a great speaker, when will you finally tell yourself the truth that you're just a dreamer? What day will you finally choose to create YOUR SUCCESS?
- 5. Average people feel others are GIFTED. Remember the story about the fox who said: "The grapes are sour?" When most professionals can't become CONFIDENT EXPERTS, they make a victim-based judgment: "They're better than me. I can never become a great speaker." The truth is this: Whatever you believe about yourself WILL come true. If you believe you don't have what it takes, you won't. If you believe you do have what it takes, you WILL. Make your choice.

If you're still reading, I'm assuming you have no interest in living the rest of your life on the level of the average person. So let's talk about solutions:

What Do You CHOOSE For Your Future? The Fearful Life of “Average” Person or the HAPPY Life of The Confident Expert?

Read further, only if you're SERIOUS about becoming THE CONFIDENT EXPERT instead of the average expert of your career & life.

If there's one word that describes my feeling after being a confident speaker, that would be: "AWESOME!"

“Before I met Bishal, everything about presentations was a challenge: right from preparing the content to delivering the presentation. I did not have ANY bit of self-confidence. I used to be shit scared to open my mouth in front of a group, even though I was a subject matter expert. Then I started learning from Bishal, and he started helping me with my presentation skills. To begin with, I learned how to present myself & my ideas in a CONFIDENT manner. I have gained enough confidence to face people.

If there's one word that describes my feeling after being a confident speaker, that would be: "AWESOME!" Bishal will show you how to become a confident speaker, in a practical way. You'll be very nicely taken care of by him as your mentor.”

Sathish Kumar Chellan, Senior Project Manager Fidelity Investments

I created something that can transform your career & life in just a matter of months.

I am very selective about who I mentor, because I am associating my name with that person's results. I only invest my time in people with the potential to succeed. So I am very careful.

The first thing you need to get clear on is: DO YOU WANT THIS?

Do You Want To Do the Work Required To Be a Confident Expert?

What would that be like? Well, let's see:

Imagine that you've just given a BLOCKBLUSTER presentation in front of senior managers, colleagues & clients, and you did it SO CONFIDENTLY, and you didn't make a single mistake. It went flawlessly. And at the end of your presentation, all you can hear is: “WOW- he's SO DAMN CONFIDENT!”

Imagine people keeping looking at you and your body language, trying to figure out what happened to you suddenly for which you're able to ROCK every presentation.

And imagine you getting that promotion letter than others were hungry about.

And imagine coming back home, surprising your wife with this news, watching as she takes a deep breath, hugs you and says: "You're my hero."

And imagine your children coming and hugging your legs as you're standing and they say: "Daddy, I love you."

How would that make you feel? Does that sound like a life you want?

"I don't have stage fright anymore ...
I improved so much from this program that I am coming back here with my wife..."

Before coming to this program, my biggest challenges were stage fright, eye contact with the audience and impromptu questions.

But after attending this program, I don't have stage fright anymore and have better eye contact with the audience.

The best part about this program is, you get to go on the stage often and learn the practical tips and practice there.

I improved so much from this program that I am coming back here with my wife.

Alok Srivastava
Senior Product Manager

Can you see the confidence in Alok's eyes? I can. I worked with him to GET IT THERE.

If you've been in my circle, and been reading "THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Daily Mentoring" for a while, you know that the experience I provide in my program is quite expensive.

Why Is an AUDI More Expensive Than a Tata Nano?

People pay a premium for an AUDI because of the quality of experience and RESULT they get when they own and drive one.

The level of result I achieve with people in my program coupled with the current demands for my time leads to a very premium fee level.

The yearly investment to hire me as a one-on-one mentor to have me look at your presentations in-person, and meet you once a month to help you create GREAT RESULTS is 95 lacs Rupees.

When my clients send me reviews, and tell me about their success stories and how they've got 10000% ROI, it fills me with happiness and true satisfaction.

But paying that huge chunk of money is not a realistic option for many of my super-star future clients.

I run a very successful VIP MASTERMIND called "RULE YOUR LIFE MASTERMIND" where the entry fee ranges between 24 Lacs to 47 Lacs a year. Most people can't afford that.

So I've structured things differently to help more serious people take advantage of what I have to offer. Please read this next section very carefully so you are clear about all of the details.

Here's What Happens If You Are Accepted as a Private Client Into My Program

Siva Rajesh Koduri, INFOSYS, Bangalore

There are two options from which you may choose for our work together, IF I select you after the interview process:

OPTION 1: The GOLD Level:

You'll be invited to THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Foundational Masterclass, my proprietary online training, over the next 4 weeks that will SPECIFICALLY address implementing the overall Confidence Development Plan and move you through a proven process to transform your speaking style into the one that we design together.

Plus you'll be invited to "THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Live Experience" (open to members only) where we'll practically get you in front of people, have you present, I will give you feedback & coaching, and do whatever it takes to help you achieve the results you want to take your speaking, your career and your life to their ideal destination. You'll learn from ME in a small group of 10 people, and also give over 10 presentations in this 3-day HIGH VOLTAGE event. Stage fear will be your past, confidence will be your present, and ULTIMATE HAPPINESS will be your future.

Additionally after the event, we'll have a special Group Q&A Sessions where we'll address PRECISELY the specific challenges you're facing at that time and how to move past them with the clarity of both your course peers and a Mentor who has been there before.

You'll receive 1-year access to CONFIDENCE UNIVERSITY (that's where I mentor you once a month even after the 3-day live experience) while active in the Mentoring Group. Every month you will get access to a specific training that will accelerate your persuasion, power & performance.

You'll have 1-year unlimited access to me via email. (Keep in mind, I charge 95 Lacs Rupees for one-on-one access to me to others).

You'll get access to ALL my books.

You'll have immediate access to all my audios so you can turn your vehicle into your personal university.

Plus, you'll attend THE CONFIDENT EXPERT Celebration Party, you can bring your family, because I will bring mine. And we all celebrate your success happily.

The regular investment for this program is 6.5 lacs Rupees.

However I've found that people that take MASSIVE ACTION are most fun to mentor, and they get the BEST RESULTS in our program.

So the people that SHOW INSTANT ACTION by enrolling immediately after having a discussion with us, I reward them by giving them a scholarship, and hence your investment will be only 3.5 Lacs Rupees.

OPTION 2: The SILVER Level:

The Silver option generally is 1.7 lacs Rupees, and includes everything from the VIP level except access to CONFIDENCE UNIVERSITY or the one-on-one unlimited access to me. So you don't get the CONFIDENCE UNIVERSITY ACCESS, and there's no one-on-one unlimited access to me after we're done with the course.

So the people that SHOW INSTANT ACTION by enrolling immediately after having a discussion with us, I reward them by giving them a scholarship, and hence your investment in this option will be only 90,000 Rupees.

GUARANTEE: My course comes with a 100% money back guarantee. If you do the work in the course and don't see the results, simply ask for a refund at the end of the course. You can still keep all the templates and manuals, secret formulas, no need to return them. Not only that, I will pay you an additional 95,000 Rupees for wasting your time. I put risk on MY shoulder because I know if I select someone and they do the work I tell them to do, they're GUARANTEED TO SEE RESULTS. Only a fool can doubt that.

AS A SPECIAL BONUS, in both options you will receive unlimited access to my "Mega Confidence: BEST SPEAKER Template," "Secret of First Impression Formula Course" and "Spontaneous Speaker Mastery Online Program" for FREE! People have paid an ADDITIONAL of 2 Lacs Rupees for these bonuses in the past, you will get them for FREE. This FREE Bonus offer is applicable until 25th March 2017, because after that we will again offer these as premium products separately on our websites.

"Can You Give Me a Discount, Bishal?"

If you would like to investigate your options for getting a discount on my course investment, know that this is a sign my programs are probably NOT right for you. You don't belong here, probably in that case. This is not a place for losers. I am looking to help serious individuals who are committed to living their best life instead of allowing cheap low-standard people into the group. Successful people pay the price and get what they want while enjoying life while losers keep searching for this discount and that discount and never get anywhere significant in life, and that's the truth.

Part of teaching others to become Confident Experts is that I must FIRST walk the path myself. So I am 100% confident in the value I offer to my clients to help them achieve real results.

It's for that reason that the fees I get for access to the two levels of my program are not up for negotiation. So if you're still looking for low-level cheap and not-so-great courses that will cost you less money and probably won't get you much results, then no problem. I am happy to refer you to other, far cheaper but less comprehensive solutions. There are many out there.

I wanted to show you all this information transparently upfront before you apply because I am NOT AT ALL interested in convincing anyone. What I have works, and I want the people who can convince me that they will not let me down.

If you'd like to apply to see if you qualify to be here, fill out the application form with some courage here:

www.BishalSarkar.com/apply

Now you already know who I am looking for, and who I am NOT looking for, I hope you can honestly tell me in the application form if you have whatever it takes to succeed with my top-notch step-by-step strategies.

As you can see, there are several steps to this process of working with ME and there is a specific reason for that:

We want to ensure we only accept clients for whom we can get real results. So it is best to be patient and let the process unfold.

Keep in mind, many others are reading this PDF right now, probably hundreds and we're constantly having new people reaching out for joining my course. We'll speak to a lot of them (based on their applications), and select a handful because I want the RIGHT people in my course, instead of a lot of people.

I am looking forward to helping you overcome the problems and pains that propelled you to read this document, and I look forward to impacting you so you can impact your family, and you can influence the world with your confidence.

It's time you SHOW UP with your CONFIDENT SELF.

Dedicated to helping you multiplying your CONFIDENCE & FREEDOM!
